The Diocese of NH needs our input:

At our diocesan convention in November, Bishop Rob announced that the diocese is beginning work on a capital campaign to fund congregational, clergy and lay leadership initiatives. These funds for New Life will be featured in the months ahead so we can consider how they could directly impact our church's ability to attract, keep and nurture quality clergy and lay leaders to help us flourish.

Consider:

What challenges do you imagine the Bishop faces when wanting to support or strengthen new or existing ministries?

2022 Stewardship

FAITH INTO ACTION

A Letter from Fr. Dave about Stewardship for 2022

Dear Parishioners and Friends of St. John the Baptist Church,

This time last year we were still facing the many of the challenges of the 2020 global pandemic. The doors of the church were closed but our church was still open, and God was moving in our community through Zoom Morning Prayer services, Bible studies, book groups, vestry meetings, cards, letters, Friday Reflections, and the annual diocesan convention. Church leaders and parishioners alike noted that the year 2020 felt like an exile from community, family, friends, and in-church worship services. Read the full letter here.
