BLACK HISTORY MONTH Deaconess Anna Alexander

Deaconess Anna Alexander (~1865 - 1947) was the only African-American deaconess to serve in The Episcopal Church.

Born into slavery, she learned to read from her enslaved father and went on to teach generations of children and help them enroll for higher education. She founded both a school and the Church of the Good Shepherd in Pennick, GA. She was added to the Episcopal Church calendar of Saints in 2018.

Thoughts to consider from the Diocese of NH from deep roots NEW LIFE

The Bishop's Curates fund provides support for congregations to help them hire promising, newly ordained clergy—clergy that they otherwise would not be able to afford. Curates bring new ideas, energy, and vision to the congregation and the Diocese.

Without the Bishop's Curates Fund we would not have Nathan Bourne leading St. George's in Durham and developing a campus ministry at UNH.

How might adding a curate to your church's staff help strengthen ministries in your congregation?

2022 Stewardship FAITH INTO ACTION

A Letter from Fr. Dave about Stewardship for 2022

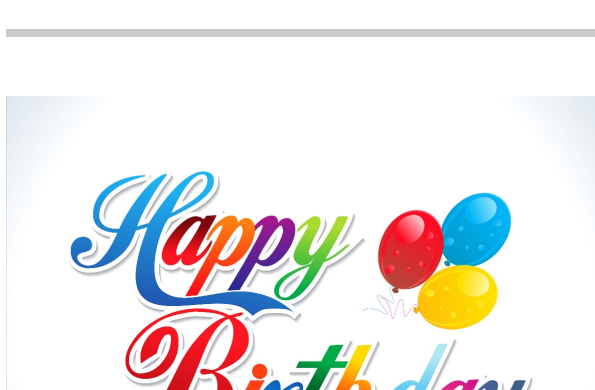

Dear Parishioners and Friends of St. John the Baptist Church,

This time last year we were still facing the many the challenges of the 2020 global pandemic. The doors of the church were closed but our church was still open, and God was moving in our community through Zoom Morning Prayer services, Bible studies, book groups, vestry meetings, cards, letters, Friday Reflections, and the annual diocesan convention. Church leaders and parishioners alike noted that the year 2020 felt like an exile from community, family, friends, and in-church worship services. Read the full letter here.

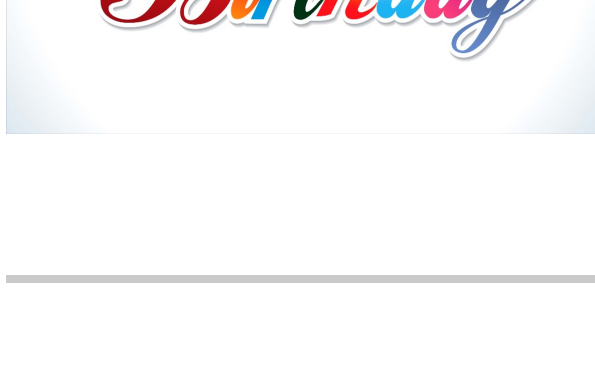

Click on the image below support St. John's by displaying/printing a 2022 Pledge card. When completed it can be mailed to The Church of St. John the Baptist, P.O. Box 249, Sanborville, NH 03872 or copied/photoed and emailed to stjohntb@gmail.com!
